VNA Northwest Receives Contribution from Junior Women's Club of Litchfield Hills

VNA Northwest has received a donation of $500 from the Junior Women's Club of the Litchfield Hills to help defray the cost of purchasing updated computer equipment.

"We are grateful for this contribution, and for the work of the Junior Women's Club in the communities we serve," said Nancy Deming, RN, BSHA, executive director of VNA Northwest.

The all-volunteer Junior Women's Club, founded in 1965, serves the towns of Bantam, Canaan, Colebrook, Cornwall, Goshen, Hartland, Harwinton, Kent, Lakeside, Litchfield, Morris, New Hartford, New Milford, New Preston, Norfolk, Northfield, Salisbury, Sharon, Thomaston, Torrington, Washington, Winchester, and Winsted.

VNA Northwest, a nonprofit home care and hospice agency founded in 1928, serves residents of all towns in Litchfield County. In addition to home care and hospice, the agency provides wellness programs in many communities, including blood pressure screenings, fall prevention clinics, and immunizations. To learn more about the agency's programs and services, please visit www.vnanw.org or call 860-567-6000.
