Three Members of the Local Community Join VNA Northwest, Inc. Board of Directors

BANTAM – VNA Northwest, Inc. welcomed three new members to its nonprofit Board of Directors at the agency’s annual meeting last week. They are: Susan Burton of Litchfield, Mike Patterson of Winchester, and Margret K. Warner of Torrington.

Mrs. Burton is an employment consultant and has been working for the State of Connecticut for 26 years. She has served on many boards, including the Northwest Connecticut Chamber of Commerce and Community Council. She has worked on advisory committees, including Leadership Northwest and the Chamber’s WOW forum. She is a member the United Way of Northwest Connecticut’s Women in Leadership Committee, and enjoys working locally as a volunteer for the Litchfield Community Center’s “Build a Better Me” program for youth.

Mike Patterson of Winchester is owner of Doyle’s Medical Supply in Torrington. He has served on the board of Charlotte Hungerford Hospital, and has been involved in local community activities, including: the Penguin Plunge, the Tour of the Litchfield Hills, and Miles for Moe.

Margret K. Warner is Assistant Vice President of Business Development for Litchfield Bancorp. She serves as a program chair on the board of the Northwest Connecticut Chamber of Commerce and has been involved with the United Way and Litchfield Rotary.

These members join returning member Meryl Eve Matisoff of Harwinton and 11 other representatives from local communities on the agency’s Board of Directors. They are: Denise Cloutier, Goshen; Timothy Cook, Torrington; Cindy Donaldson, Torrington; Laurel Galloway, Litchfield; Michael D. Lynch, Sharon; Michael McCormack, Woodbury; Georgianna Middlebrook, Washington; Maureen Pratt, Litchfield; Terri Ruot, Harwinton; and Laurance Weber, New Preston; Chairperson is Arthur J. Mulligan, III of Southbury.

VNA Northwest, a home care and hospice agency that currently serves all towns in Litchfield County, was founded in Cornwall in 1928. For information on programs and services the agency offers, please visit www.vnanw.org, or call 860-567-6000.
